Majority of Town Boards Favor Transfer Station

MILLBURY - The Solid Waste Disposal Committee met with town officials and department heads on Wednesday, February 10, at the Town Hall. Committee Chairman Richard Dwinell explained the purpose of the meeting: "We thought before we go to the town meeting, we should get together for a consensus for what the feelings are for pursuing a transfer station and putting an article in the Town Warrant."

Dwinell explained that the committee intends to go out to bid once plans for the facility are approved, and then put an article in the town warrant for that sum of money.

Finance Committee Chairman Jerry Bleau expressed a concern his committee has to the project. "I can't make a motion on that (the transfer station article) without

From the Editor's Desk...

The Anonymous Letter Writer

If there is one thing common to all newspapers, it is the large volume of mail that is received daily. Most of the mail consists of press releases or requests for coverage of events, but occasionally another type of letter will arrive: the unsigned letter. Unsigned letters usually contain unsubstantiated charges leveled at an individual, a business, or a group.

From these types of letters we are able to reach certain conclusions about their authors: they are cowards of the worst ilk. They profess all manner of wrongdoing, make serious allegations, and then hide behind such righteous signatures as "concerned citizen" or, as was received most recently, "George Washington".

As a fledgling newspaper we do not receive a great number of letters to the editor but most of those we do receive that are signed with legitimate signatures have one thing in common. They are written by individuals who not only have the courage of their convictions but are brave enough to take a stand and let their feelings be known, regardless of the consequences. It is these individuals who command respect whether or not we agree with their views and, more often than not, it is these individuals who are the true "concerned citizens."

Yes, it takes courage to share your views and convictions with thousands of other people, leaving yourself open to criticism and sometimes ridicule. It takes courage to allow yourself to openly confront a perceived wrongdoing, allowing for honest response and debate. However, it takes absolutely no courage whatsoever to pen an accusatory letter, to point an accusing finger, to make libelous statements and then to run and hide behind a yellow shield of anonymity.

And so, to the "Concerned Citizens" and "George Washingtons" of this world, we quote the real George Washington, "Labor to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire, called conscience."

We the people...

Presence Still Felt

To the Editor:

One person can make a difference.

In the case of the Millbury School Connection, that one person was Kathy Falkenberg.

Kathy, who by the way was a very busy person already, decided that an active volunteer group, working together with the Millbury school system, would be a positive step toward helping our schools provide the best education possible. Meetings were hosted by Kathy at her home throughout the summer of 1987. Attendance increased steadily as word spread.

The Millbury School Connection is now in its first year. We are making steady progress, and have been very encouraged by the response from the schools involved, as well as volunteers from the community.

Unfortunately, it was necessary for Kathy and her family to move to Ohio early in the Fall season. But her presence is still felt among the other members. She was one caring person who made a difference in our community that will continue to benefit the children of Millbury for many years.

Thank you Kathy!

MILLBURY SELECTMEN'S MEETING DIGEST

Board turns down Police Department Recommendation for Liquor License Suspension

By Edward J. Cooney

FEBRUARY 9, 1988

MILLBURY - The Selectmen's meeting began with the signing of warrants and the approval of the January 26 minutes.

Following a discussion on bonding issues, the meeting turned to problems relating to the McCracken Road Bridge. Administrator Earl Chase reported that there are structural defects in the bridge. He explained that Bayside Engineering had inspected the bridge in 1979 and 1987, and had cited the need for a new deck, reinforcing beams, water pipe replacement and new roadway approaches to the bridge. The estimated cost for repairs is $260,000.

Selectman John Donnelly stated that more than likely a new bridge would be needed and that 10 wheelers should be prohibited from using the bridge. Adams noted that future plans for 146 may have a bearing on the bridge. Donnelly suggested that the town wait and see what the state is going to do and that, in the meantime, the bridge should be posted for weight restrictions. It was also suggested that businesses in the area of McCracken Road be notified by mail of the posting.

In another matter, Chase reported that permits were never issued for the 4 sets of lights in the downtown area. "New permits were never applied for during the downtown reconstruction by the engineer." Selectman Roland Lachance questioned the need for another permit since blinking lights were already in place at the time. Chase will investigate the matter further.

- Chase reported that he has been notified by mail that Millbury's telephone exchange may be changed from 865 to 855 in the near future.

- Chase made reference to state regulations regarding smoking in public places. He stated that the regulations suggest that a designated smoking area be established, and that signs must be posted indicating that smoking is banned in areas of the town hall that are used for public meetings and assembly. Chase also noted that bingo games are exempt from the non-smoking regulations. Selectmen Chairman Jude Cristo suggested that Chase draw up recommendations for future discussion.

- Moving to "Old Business," Chase reported that the veterans organizations have chosen Stuart Mulhane to be a representative on the Housing Partnership Committee. He also noted that Donna Lebel had expressed an interest in serving on that committee. In order to complete the committee, a member of the Board of Selectman, a member of the banking community, and a representative from the real estate industry are needed.

It was noted that a member of the banking community who lives in another town has expressed interest in serving on the committee. Adams suggested that residents would have more interest than someone from another town. He then moved to appoint those who had submitted their names with Donnelly suggested that it might be more appropriate to interview applicants before making appointments.

Appointments were tabled until a later date.

- At 7:30, a Public Hearing was held pertaining to the sale of liquor to a minor by A. Krassopoulos, owner of George's Market. Cristo presided over the hearing with Police Officers Donald Desorcy and Lincoln Barton present.

Officer Desorcy stated that as a result of complaints concerning several beer and wine license owners, an investigation had been conducted. The police sent a minor into George's Market to purchase beer. According to Desorcy, "The clerk was working alone. He (the minor) went to the beer cooler for a six pack of beer which is here in evidence. He was told if questioned to show his valid driver's license and not to lie about his age." Continuing, Desorcy stated that the minor went to the counter and paid $3.00 for the beer and then returned to a van parked outside where Desorcy was waiting. "We returned to the store and informed the owner what had happened," said Desorcy, who added that a hearing is now pending in District Court.

Counsel for Mr. Krassopoulos stated that he had nothing to add to the facts presented. "He did sell it. He was of the opinion that he (the minor) was over 21 years of age. He (Krassopoulos) was busy at the time."

Cristo asked Krassopoulos if he had asked for an I.D. Krassopoulos replied that he was preparing food at the time and thought the individual purchasing the beer looked old enough. "I have been in this business 14 years and this never happened before. I don't know what happened. He looked nice and clean to me. I misjudged." Krassopoulos also stated that he has been checking I.D.'s since the incident occurred.

Cristo then asked for a recommendation from the Police Department. Desorcy replied that the department was recommending a 2 or 3 day suspension of the license.

Cristo remarked that Krassopoulos had a clean record with no previous problems. "In the past we have given 3 day suspensions and have suspended that until another violation at which time we tack on those 3 days."

Cristo then asked if there were any concerns from other board members. Donnelly stated that one day suspensions have been given in the past. "I move to suspend 1 day and suspend that to be served if a further violation occurs." The board unanimously approved Donnelly's motion.

Cristo stated that the board, as commissioners and licensing agents, would like to be made aware of any future investigations of this type. Police Chief George Brady replied, "We give you a warning now. We are going to be doing it. Can't tell you when or where. If a situation arises, we have to do it. They come about because of several complaints."

Officer Desorcy then spoke to the one day suspension, suggesting that a 1 day suspension, which is then suspended, might send a message to owners that they are entitled to one free time.

Cristo responded that the first is a warning. "The next or 2nd offense will be more severe plus the first time suspension would be tacked on. Subsequent offenses will be more severe."

Desorcy stated that he had taken the time to explain it to Mr. Krassopoulos. "A one day suspension is only a one day loss of business. It is not catastrophic since most of his business is in pizzas and grinders."

Cristo replied, "We are trying to do it equitably and treat everybody along the same lines."

Sgt. Barton cautioned against setting precedent down the road.

Cristo stated, "Another board in the future may think it should be more severe. Don't rule out revoking licenses on repeaters. There is no question on that," said Cristo.

Desorcy stated, "We are trying to be innovative. We are tying to be more effective yet fair."

Adams stated, "I approve. You are to be congratulated for what good you have done."

- The meeting moved to appointments, with Chase noting that a letter of resignation from Paul Gallo, a library trustee, was received. The board approved with regrets noted.

- Turning to "Resource Recovery," Adams informed the board that a meeting of the Central Mass. Resource Recovery Committee will be held at the Worcester Office of the D.P.W. concerning grant applications for closing landfills.

- Chase reported that a bill for monies that would effect the downtown parking grant was still in the legislature awaiting action. He told the board that 2 articles for funds for the Asa Waters Mansion will be presented at the annual town meeting.

- Cristo inquired if testing on the new fume incinerator at Lewcott has been completed by the DEQE. Chase replied that the DEQE has not signed off as yet and that he was not aware of any problems. He also noted that Polyclad's fume incinerator will be in place within a month and a half.

- At 8:00 p.m., the Board met with Chief George Brady to review the Police Budget. Brady, in opening the discussion, recommended an increase in the meal allowance to $7.00 for officers during their week of training. He also noted that a grievance has been filed pertaining to that matter.

During the discussions, the primary concern of board members focused on the increase and use of overtime. Members Lachance and Adams questioned Brady for several minutes cit-

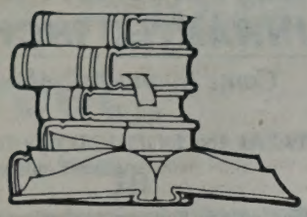
From the Sutton Libraries —



Books and More...!

As we begin a new year, we offer the following recap of the major events of 1987 and some things to look for in the near future:

After 15 years of service, Director Mary Harting has resigned to move to New Hampshire. She is succeeded by Joanne Donnelly, a longtime resident and former math teacher.

Annette Ford and Carole Anderson are the new librarians at the Main Library on Uxbridge Road.

The Manchaug Library had 4 vandalized windows repaired and the emergency lighting system replaced. Replacement of exterior doors and lights, and installation of gutters and repairs to the siding are planned for this summer if our budget is approved at Town Meeting.

We began offering video cassettes last fall through the Interlibrary Loan Service and have since begun our own collection with the help of a state grant. New selections are arriving monthly. Recent additions include: "Crocodile Dundee," "Amadeus," and "Fiddler on the Roof."

Story Hour was a sell-out again, and we wish to thank volunteers Sylvia Stepian (Summer Session) and Sharyn Petkus (Fall Session) for a job well done.

Thanks also to the organizations who made generous contributions: The Sutton Lions - $1,600 for a new Encyclopedia of Science and Technology; The Sutton Arts Council - $300 for educational toys; The Woman's Fellowship of Sutton - $200 for a tape player and book tapes.

We were visited by the Girl Scouts in November, and would like to invite other groups to check us out. Contact Mrs. Donnelly to arrange a time.

We are very proud of our two libraries and believe we offer an outstanding quality and variety of material for a small town. We base this belief on the fact that some of our 1987 circulation figures (Adult Fiction - 10,201; Juvenile Fiction - 8,664) rival those of libraries serving twice our population. Also, nearly 10% of our total circulation is to non-residents (we have several Worcesterites who use our facilities regularly).

Please come and see us. Our hours are as follows:

Sutton Center - Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 2-8 p.m. (Saturday hours will resume soon.)

Manchaug - Monday & Thursday, 6-8 p.m.; Wednesday, 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m.

CEA Sponsors Film Night

WORCESTER. The Childbirth Education Association will sponsor Film Night on Thursday, February 25, at 7:00 p.m. in the Basement Conference Room of St. Vincent Hospital, 25 Winthrop Street, Worcester.

Film Night enables expectant couples to observe actual birth experiences with an instructor available to answer questions following each film. Both vaginal and Cesarean birth films are shown.

Film Night is free of charge, open to the public, and no registration is necessary. For more information, call C.E.A. at 791-7229.

Bus Warehousing Operation Proposed for Riverlin Street

By Rosalie Tirella

MILLBURY - Planning Board members listened to an unofficial preliminary proposal from William Fox, at the February 8th meeting. Fox, owner of Fox Bus lines, came before the board to discuss plans to move his bus warehousing operation from McCracken Road to Riverlin Street.

Board members appeared to be in favor of the plan, citing the fact that buses would not be picking up passengers or freight at the location. The sole purpose of the lot would be to warehouse approximately 13 buses at night. Fox was quick to tell the board that his buses would not run on an hourly schedule, but would operate on tour or charter schedules, leaving the area for eight or nine hours at a time. He maintained that, as a rule, six or seven buses would be warehoused at night since the remaining buses would be on the road.

Fox also plans to build a small maintenance garage as far back as possible from the neighboring residences, and intends to build a 20-25 foot wide driveway.

Fox's attorney stated that the proposed usage of the area on Riverlin Street would be one of the most desirable alternatives for the industrially zoned area.

Planning Board member Anna Lewandowski agreed, saying, "Something like this will fit into the area. I like the idea of the land being utilized."

- Jon LeClaire withdrew his application for a Special Permit to add one studio apartment to an existing five-family structure at 65 Elm Street.

On his application for 65A Elm Street, LeClaire asked the board to consider a third apartment in the attic of the existing two-family house. LeClaire maintained that he would not change the outside of the structure but intended to re-side the building and install new windows.

Although LeClaire has two more parking spaces for the building than the zoning regulations require, a neighbor was at the meeting to express his concern over the parking space. He stated that LeClaire's lot was "an awfully small lot," and asked, "Is there room for all the cars to park?"

Former Town Planner Chris Nelson and Planning Board Chairman Gary Swenson, suggested that the board view the site and then vote on the permit. The board then voted to continue the public hearing until after it has inspected the site.

- The board was unable to take action on a proposal by Robert LeBlanc to build a two-lot subdivision off Herricks Lane because LeBlanc did not have the town clerk's endorsement of the plan. LeBlanc maintained that he misunderstood the procedures and said that he would present the board with the necessary documents at the next meeting.

In other business, the planning board unanimously approved an approval-not-required subdivision on Harris Grove.

Program to Focus on International Understanding

On Friday, February 26, former Worcester Mayor Tim Cooney will share experiences relating to his participation in Pushkin, Russia, in a mayoral exchange of the Soviet Sisters of Worcester.

The event will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Unitarian Universalist Society on the Common in Grafton. This program is sponsored by the Social Responsibility Committtee. All who are interesteed in international understanding and perhaps in another perspective are invited to attend.

Valentine Whist Party Rescheduled

MILLBURY - The Valentine Whist Party sponsored by the Millbury Federated Church, originally scheduled for February 12, has been rescheduled to February 19 at 7:00 p.m.

Tickets, at a cost of $2.00 per person, will be on sale at the door.

ing the fact that two years ago when two patrolmen were added to the department, and the past year when four dispatchers were added, the board was told that these additions would cut down on the use of overtime.

Cristo also expressed the board's concern when he stated, "You have to find a way to cut overtime. It is going out of sight."

Lachance stated that the budget is presently at $800,000 and will probably hit one million in the near future. He noted that the overtime account was $30,000 and is now up to $50,000 in next year's budget. He suggested cutting it by $15,000. His motion did not carry as the vote was 2 for and 3 against.

On a motion by Adams to submit the budget, the motion carried on a 3-2 vote, with Gauthier and Lachance voting no.

Chief Brady agreed to return with figures showing the amount of money expended from the overtime account as a result of time and days an acting chief and acting sergeant were required to fill in during Brady's absence for sick time. Lachance stated that he wasn't picking on the Chief but it appeared that the overtime account was subsidizing his position.

What's the Difference?

By Pat O'Leary & Larry Ham

HOW TO PLAY: The answers to the two clues rhyme and the beginning consonant sounds are switched. For example: What's the difference between a neckwear fastener and a metal pan for baked desserts? One is a TIE PIN and the other is a PIE TIN. Sound counts, not spelling.

1. A feline's keg and a flying rodent's Christmas song?
   A _____ and a _____
2. A gratis seven days and a tiny oddity?

knowing what the number (the cost of the building) is - particularly on that. I cannot make a motion in the book without funds." Bleau was referring to the fact that the finance committee's primary function is to investigate warrant articles and make recommendations for their approval, rejection, or postponement. The warrant articles with the finance committee's recommendations are published in the "Town Book" which is mailed to all town residents.

On this issue, Bleau later stated that the finance committee "does not have an official position on the transfer station." In response to a question on whether the finance committee would recommend Indefinite Postponement, Bleau replied, "The only decision that the committee has made is not to discuss it (the transfer station) anymore. It was consuming our committee for the last two years."

In a later interview, Bleau further explained, "Our problem has been that we didn't feel enough background work has been done to draw the conclusion that a transfer is the solution." The finance committee feels that the Solid Waste Committee has relied on a single source for its conclusion from the very beginning, namely the SEA study (SEA is the engineering consulting firm that was hired by the committee to prepare the plans.). "The (solid Waste) committee was formed, and it decided at its second meeting to go for a transfer station. We feel that the problem is complex and required a bit more than two weeks to come to a conclusion. So we continue to have problems with the decision. We discussed it in September, October, and November, then just decided that until we get more information, we would move on to other pressing matters."

The town book will be coming out by the first of April and the Solid Waste Committee will not have the final construction figures before that time. Dwinell stated that he would submit the figure that SEA has given them as an estimate, namely, $700,000.

In response to questions from Gary Nelson, Chairman of the Capital Budget Committee, on time frames, Dwinell estimated, "It will take at least a year from now if we get the money to build it."

Later in the evening, Dwinell explained the intended procedure. "In two weeks, we'll be in position to start the bidding process." He further explained that SEA will handle all aspects of the bidding and then, when the bidding process is complete, the committee will know exactly how much the facility will cost.

Stephen Walinsky, representing the Resource Recovery Advisory Committee, asked if the construction of the transfer station was to be coordinated with the closing and capping of the landfill. Dwinell said "Yes", and then went to explain that the anticipated cost of closing and capping the landfill is 1.6 million dollars. He added that a bill has been passed recently which makes money available for that purpose. Dwinell explained that the landfill, though not officially closed, is technically closed and that the town is already transferring refuse to Wheelabrator.

Dwinell explained that the seven member Solid Waste Committee decided that "in view of the fact that we'd be getting money (from Wheelabrator) we'd build a transfer station to handle 100% of the waste for the town of Millbury - residential, commercial, and industrial. We feel strongly that instead of addressing 40% of the trash that curbside addresses, this will address 100%."

Bleau also brought up the issue of recycling: "There's no way for recycling to take place with the design of the plant. If the state is pushing recycling, then there's no way to accommodate it." Dwinell responded that recycling could take place at the facility, but George D'Auteuil, a member of the Solid Waste committee, stated that there was only a "small amount of room the way things are now." He did explain, in defense of the committee, that they were charged with trying to get plans for a transfer station prepared.

Dwinell stated that the "state will be mandating in the near future to recycle whether we have a dump or municipal pick-up."

Selectman Wynton Adams who has been attending meetings and seminars on the subject of recycling explained that recycling begins at the source, whether that is curbside or at the transfer station. "The program entails containers, in the home or at the transfer station." There are two categories of recyclable refuse: paper goods and bottles and cans. This should reduce the volume of refuse by 20% to 40%. "The balance would have to be disposed of in the normal manner," Adams said.

"Time is running out for the sanitary landfill," Dwinell cautioned, "and the problem has to be resolved quickly."

Dwinell asked David Cofske, Town Treasurer, whether the town would pay for the facility out of free cash or seek bonds. Cofske stated that it was a difficult question to answer. "If the finance committee can see the way, I'd like to pay cash. We ought to be able to earmark money from Wheelabrator, and when we're ready, pay for it out of that and everything else with that dump, the (hauling and loading) equipment and capping."

Adams disagreed with Cofske stating, "If Wheelabrator was a commercial facility, we'd be collecting taxes and we should look at the money in the same way as regular tax dollars."

Bleau commented, "The finance committee discussed in great detail not just the source of income from Wheelabrator but from others as well. Because it's limited, we feel just the opposite of Mr. Adams. If that money goes to reduce the tax base, because of (Prop) 2 1/2 we can't get it back. We'd rather see that money appropriated for a new school down the road, or for a recreation area that we can call our own. We'd rather see those things come from that rather than reduce the tax base."

In closing remarks, Jude Cristo, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, stated, "The members of the town boards and departments are in favor of the transfer station with the exception of the finance committee. It comes down to this; we previously voted to do the engineering and will go to the town for the money (to construct the transfer station.) I approve of the transfer station and will support it no matter what the finance committee decides."

Voters will have the opportunity to decide for themselves at the May 3rd annual Town Meeting.

Elderly Homestead Legislation to be topic of meeting

WORCESTER - The Worcester District Registry of Deeds, Room 2 - Court House, 2 Main Street, will hold a meeting on Wednesday, March 2, at 6:30 p.m. to discuss the new Elderly Homestead Legislation which recently became effective.

Register of Deeds Anthony J. Vigliotti, noted that there is some confusion and misunderstanding in the application of the law and in the filing of the necessary forms.

Information will be provided at this meeting on the correct procedure for filling out the forms.

The legislation in question (Homestead Protection-Elderly and Disabled Persons, Chapter 194, Section 1A) reads as follows:

"The real property of persons sixty-five years of age or older, regardless of marital status, or of a person who is physically or mentally disabled and as a result of such disability, upon proper proof, is unable to engage in substantial gainful employment, shall be protected against seizure by execution of judgment to the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; provided, however, that such person has filed an elderly or disabled person declaration of homestead protection at the registry of deeds in the county wherein such person resides, and, provided, further, that the real property is utilized by such person as his principal residence. The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this section: federal, state and local taxes, assessments and liens; first and second mortgages held by financial institutions or others; and any and all debts or contracts incurred prior to the filing of the declaration or if the real property is sold or transferred during any such homeowners' lifetime."

Library to Exhibit Teen Art Work

MILLBURY - The Millbury Public Library will be celebrating Youth Art Month with an exhibit of the art work of local teenagers in grades six through twelve from March 22 through April 2.

If you are an artistic teen that wants to participate in this exhibit, bring your art work, which can include photography and small three dimensional pieces, to the library during library hours, starting on March 8. Art work must be framed, matted or mounted for hanging.

All exhibiting teens will be eligible to win five popular rock albums, compliments of WICN Radio, 9.5 FM.

Classroom eco-system installed in Middle School Greenhouse

Representatives from the East Falmouth based New Alchemy Institute worked with parents and faculty members recently to prepare a classroom eco-system in the newly-installed solar greenhouse at the Shaw Middle School. Judy Salisbury, Director of Children's Programs at the Institute, explained, "We are making a model of a natural system so the children will be able to see how it all connects. Our goal is to promote an ecological future, to find ways we can meet our basic human needs in an economical and practical way."

In addition to providing educational programs the non-profit Institute, begun in 1968, conducts experiments and research into sustainable agriculture and food production in solar greenhouses and energy efficient buildings.

Parents and teachers mix soil for the greenhouse.

Organizing a group or keeping one together can be difficult for even the most committed individuals. Meetings can be the most difficult and often sticky aspects in any group's history. One of the issues revolving around meeting with group members is, naturally, where to meet. Many groups must meet in cramped rooms or in somebody's living room. There are always scheduling conflicts with spaces that are used regularly by other groups. If these are the experiences of your group, the library can offer a viable option.

The Library offers a meeting room to local groups and organizations. This room, the Delia Chapin Torrey Room, is located on the library's lower level. It is 13' x 21' and holds 16 people conference style or 30 people auditorium style. The room is carpeted and is equipped with a small kitchenette. There is a large conference table that can be used (or easily moved out of the room if necessary), and 30 stackable, padded chairs.

This room is available for meetings, programs and exhibits. Groups wishing to use the room for meetings or cultural, educational, or civic purposes are encouraged to take advantage of this community facility. To use the library's meeting room, call 865-1181 for more details and reservations.

Maybe meeting room space is not an issue with your group, but there are other issues and situations that must be confronted. The library can help with a number of resources from its collection. Below is a list of titles to help build or maintain your organization or group, or to help in your group's fund-raising activities.

COMING UP AT THE LIBRARY

MARCH 22 - TEEN ART EXHIBIT: March is Youth Art Month and, to celebrate, the library is sponsoring a Teen Art Exhibit of the art work of teens in grades six through twelve. To exhibit, teens are asked to submit their art work, which can include small three dimensional pieces and photography, to the library starting March 8 during library hours. Art work must be framed, matted or mounted for hanging. All exhibiting teens will be eligible to win five popular rock albums, compliments of WICN Radio, 9.5 FM.

MARCH 2 & 9 at 3:30 - KITEMAKING: A two part program on consecutive Wednesdays. The first program will teach children in grades 4-6 how to make a diamond shaped "Eddy" kite. The second program, for children in grades 1-3, will teach youngsters how to make a "sled" kite. This program will be conducted by World on a String, with Dorothea D. Szabo instructing. Registration is necessary.

MARCH 24 at 6:30: READING AND DISCUSSING BOOKS with Professor Alex Belisle. This is the second part of the library's "Beyond the Best Seller List" three part series. On March 24, Professor Belisle will discuss the book OUR GANG, by Philip Roth. Belisle uses this work of contemporary fiction as a launching point to discuss today's American fiction scene. Copies of OUR GANG are available at the library. Registration is necessary.

LIBRARY HOURS: Tuesday-Thursday, 10-8; Friday, 10-6; Saturday, 10-1.

Millbury High Students Participate in Science Olympiad

MILLBURY. Members of the Advanced Science, Anatomy and Physiology, Physics, Honors Chemistry, and Honors Biology classes of Millbury High School participated in the Massachusetts Science Olympiad at South High School in Worcester on February 10th. Superintendent Offers Tips to Parents

"We receive many requests from parents as to how they can help their youngster succeed in school. One of the strongest indicators of school success is when parents demonstrate a very strong personal involvement and commitment to their youngster's education. Certainly supporting your youngster by attending school events and by discussing his educational progress on a daily basis are very important in letting your youngster know the value you place on his or her education.

At a recent conference, I was given the following ten tips on how parents can help their youngster be successful."

1. Talk to your child about school experiences each day.
2. Make sure your child completes all homework assignments.
3. Help your child build a home library.
4. Read to your child or listen to your child read everyday.
5. Monitor the amount of time your child watches T.V.
6. Give your child responsibilities.
7. Praise your child often by offering honest feedback.
8. Provide consistent discipline.
9. Plan a variety of experiences for your child.
10. Meet regularly with your child's teacher.

Aroun' The Town & Golden Agers Update

By Lillian C. Sheehan

ST. BRIGID'S WOMEN'S CLUB: Despite the weather, the February meeting was well attended. The speaker, Dr. Richard Glew, gave a most informative talk on "Diseases in Today's Society."

Several important items for the future were discussed. Members, please note! Peggy Spang, Chairman of the Cook Book Committee, is pleading for more recipes. Either send them directly to her at 3 Peggy Drive, Millbury, drop them off at the Rectory, or bring them to the next meeting. The committee in charge hopes to have the books printed and on hand at the Apple Fest in October. Besides having one of these books for oneself, they will also make an excellent Christmas gift. So, Please! Get those recipes in to Peggy Spang as soon as possible!!!

The Scholarship Whist Party is scheduled for April 8, and all members are asked to bring non-perishable items, canned goods and packages to the next meeting so that the committee can fill at least two baskets of groceries for the chance table. Also, attendance prizes may be brought in either at the next meeting or the night of the party.

The next meeting of the Club will be held on March 17th - a Pot Luck Supper.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER will be held on Thursday, March 3rd, at Assumption Church. More details will be given next week.

COLD COMFORT

The thing I like best about winter,
After my summertime labors
With the snow on the ground, our lawn, I have found
Looks just as good as our neighbor's.

20 YEARS AGO

February 4, 1967 - State highway officials unveil plans for a proposed connector between the Worcester Expressway and the Millbury interchange of the Massachusetts Turnpike.

February 23, 1967 - The second major snowstorm of the winter dumps eight to ten inches of wet, sticky snow on Worcester County and snarls traffic for several hours.

If you want to kill time, why not try working it to death.

Apology is often a good way to have the last word.

A gentleman is a man who can disagree without being disagreeable.

Today it isn't facing the music that hurts, it's listening to it.

Children are a great comfort in your old age - and they help you reach it faster too.

Middle age is when you know all the answers and nobody asks you the questions.
